JUDGE NOT.

Judge not; the working of his brain
And of his heart thou canst not see
What looks to thy dim eyes a stain,
In God's pure light may only be
A scar, brought from some well-won field,
Where thou wouldst only faint and yield.

The look, the air, that frets thy sight,
May by a token, that below
The soul has closed in deadly fight
With some infernal fiery foe,
Whose glance would scorch the smiling grace,
And cast the shuddering on thy face.

The fall thou darest to despise—
May be the slackened angel's hand
Has suffered it, that he may rise
And take a firmer, surer, stand;
Or, trusting less to earthly things,
May henceforth learn to use his wings.

And judge none lost, but wait and see
With hopeful pity, not disdain,
The depth of the abyss may be
The measure of the heights of pain,
And love and glory that may raise
This soul to God in after days!

Infamy of Know-Nothingism!

☞We have ever looked upon Know-Nothingism as not only a gross violation of our glorious Constitution, but also embracing doctrines at variance with every principle of decency and morality, and the professing Christian or even moralist who could join such a disgraceful and wicked organization must have a conscience seared as with a hot iron. In the first place it enjoins upon men to become LIARS—if evidence is wanted to prove this broad assertion, we have it fully portrayed in the following article from the Lancaster (Pa.) Whig—a paper that opposed Know Nothingism from the time it drew its first pestilential breath upon this happy land of freedom:

From the Lancaster Examiner, Whig.

More Secret History.

The secret history of the late campaign is being gradually unfolded. The developments are of the same character this year as the last, and as they will continue to be, so long as falsehood and treachery are made the corner stones of a political organization.

At a great k. n. meeting in New York, last week, the well-known Lewis C. Levin, of Philadelphia, made a speech, in the course of which he threw some light on the late campaign in Pennsylvania. He said:

Again: our candidate for Canal Commissioner was taken up, (Mr. Martin,) and within nine days of the election the political tricksters withdrew him. A few irresponsible individuals met at Harrisburg, without any authority from any source, expressed or implied, and substituted Mr. Thomas Nicholson. The parties making this change professed to represent the American, the republican, and the outside whig parties. The effect of this was to convulse the entire State.—The base and unprincipled purpose stood revealed. The object was to claim the triumph, which was anticipated, as a republican triumph. But even that plot failed. A distinguished gentleman from the interior of the State, who has held a high post, and who is, I trust, destined to hold a still higher one, determined if possible to save the party from the meshes of the conspirators, and on the evening of the 4th of October addressed a letter to Mr. Nicholson, in which he asked—First: Are you a member of the American party? Secondly, Do you recognize the principles of that party as primary and paramount? Thirdly, Are you opposed to the introduction of every "ism" into the American organization, which might place you, as its standard bearer, in a doubtful position? On the morning of the 5th, (four days only before the election,) the following telegraphic despatch was received by the gentleman refered to:—

HARRISBURG, Oct. 5, 1855.

SIR—I have replied to all your interrogatories in the affirmative. I have sent you a message to that effect, directed to the Washington House. THOS. NICHOLSON.

This response, and this only, gave Mr. Nicholson his twenty-five thousand votes in the city of Philadelphia.

It will be observed from the above that Nicholson answered all the interrogatories in the affirmative—thereby implying that he was a pure know nothing. On the other hand we are informed by a distinguished citizen of this county, that he (our informant) inquired of Mr. Nicholson, shortly after his selection, ON HIS HONOR AS A GENTLEMAN, whether he (Nicholson) was or was not a member of the order of k. n's;—and that Mr. Nicholson replied, "ON HIS HONOR AS A GENTLEMAN," that "he was not, and never had been, a member of that order."

How far Mr. Nicholson was worthy of Whig support or of the Whig nomination, each reader of the above facts can judge for himself. We are content with the reflection that this paper was not among his supporters.

In this connection, as additional evidence to the main point under consideration, we copy the following article from the Lehigh Valley Times—edited by E. H. Rauch. As the testimony is from one who has been inside, it is worthy of attention.

POLITICAL THOUGHTS.—The defeat of the Know Nothings at the last election, some prediction will terminate the existence of the American party. If those who make this prediction mean that the secret Councils of Know Nothings are scattered to the four winds of Heaven, then we fully agree with them. To suppose for a moment that a secret political nominating party can exist and triumph in this land of civil and religious liberty, where every citizen is a free and independent sovereign—where every man can speak his mind, and worship his God according to the dictates of conscience, would be to suppose that Americans are "cowards and the sons of cowards."

The best and purest secret party organization, we contend, cannot long exist in our country, simply because the principle is wrong and anti-Republican, In countries ruled by tyrants, where Gospel truth and the rights of man dare not be proclaimed, secret sworn associations, if necessary to secure the people's rights, are probably nearer right than wrong. But here all men enjoy civil liberty to the fullest extent, consequently, secret associations as political parties should not be countenanced, for their tendency is evil. But when a secret political order is in evil hands, and controled by unprincipled, selfish and corrupt men, then such order becomes so detestable that no good citizen can conscientiously give it aid and comfort.

The Know-Nothing order although its professions of principles are good, was managed in Pennsylvania by as corrupt a set of men as ever blackened political history, and under such leaders, a triumph would be even more surprising than the recent defeat. The very first act of importance after the Know-Nothing State Organization was effected last year, was the disgraceful Mott fraud upon the honest and unsuspecting voters of the order. The leaders, we mean the State Council Wire-workers, through the most worthy Grand High Falsifier of the Records, (A MINISTER) falsely certified that Henry S. Mott was a member of the order in good standing, and at the same time knowing that it was a deliberate lie and an infamous fraud! Still, the fraud answered the purpose of these fellows, which was to put one Democrat on the Know-Nothing ticket with which to catch Democratic votes enough to elect James Pollock Governor. Such an infamous act as this, by the leaders, was enough to disgust every right minded man, and the greatest surprise is that every K. N. who has a spark of self-respect, did not instantly repudiate these leaders. The State Council of Delegates did not even make any fuss about, but hushed up the trick as well as they could. It was an awful dose for many good men, who from pure motives, joined the Know-Nothings to swallow, but every prominent leader in the order, it appears, felt disposed to consider the matter as of no great consequence, and the few who openly denounced the fraud, were promptly cried down as disorganizers or traitors.

A GOOD REASON FOR REPUDIATING THE SECRET ORDER.—We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from the Huntsville (Ala.) Advocate, a staunch whig paper, whose editor has been induced to abjure know-nothingism. The reasons he assigns will be appreciated by every intelligent voter who has watched the progress of the order, and familiarized himself with its results:

"When know-nothingism first manifested itself it came wooing the South with the soothing, sweet, and affectionate voice of Jacob; we lent a willing ear to it, hoping that it would be a power in the North to master and swallow up abolitionism. But its hands have been the hands of Esau strong, rugged, aggressive, warlike, striking down the rights, outraging the feeling, and prostrating the interests of the South; tendering nothing in exchange but a mess of pottage seeking to bribe the sons of the South with hopes of the inheritance, while it robbed them of all. As soon as the mask was thrown off, and know-nothingism at the North and abolitionism became 'one and indivisible,' we washed our hands of it. It was not the feast to which we were invited.",

A Swiss Romance.

In the thirteenth century, Bourcard had an only daughter of surpassing beauty, who appears to have captivated the heart of Rudolphe de Wadiswyl, the youngest, the bravest, and most amiable of the Dukes of Zahringer, at some tournament. Despairing of overcoming the hatred of the Daron to his race, and of obtaining the hand of Ida in a peaceable way, he formed the design of carrying her off by force. Soon after, in consequence of the absence of her father, a favorable opportunity offered itself, and he eloped with the fair Ida, who, it appears was not unwilling to accompany him to his quarters at Berne. This piece of violence only served to increase the Baron's rage, and became the occasion of sanguinary wars which devastated the country between Berne and Interlaken. Rudolphe, generous as he was brave, at length effected by stratagem what he could not accomplish by force of arms. Fatigued with glory, and tired of battle-field, he sought an interview with his enemy. He presented himself, unarmed, at the castle, accompanied only by a page, and by bribes obtained an entrance. He bore in his arms the little boy which his Ida had lately given birth to, and addressed Bourcard—now grown sad and gray from the loss of his beloved daughter—in the most respectful and submissive terms. The old man, who recognized at a glance the features of his long-estranged child in the object now before him, burst into tears, grasped the helpless babe in his trembling arms, and freely forgave the past—yea, more; he bequeathed, by will and deed, to the boy, Walter Rudolphe named henceforth Bourcard, the whole of his large possessions and domains. It was this Walter who at his death left his heritage and lands to the convent of Interlaken.

A WONDERFUL BLIND MAN.—The Journal de Chartres gives an account of a water-mill, in the hamlet of Oisiem, near Chartres, built entirely by a blind man, without assistance or advice from any one. The masonry, carpenter's work, roofing, stairs, paddle wheel, cogs, in a word, all the machinery pertaining to the mill, has been made, put up, and set in motion by him alone. He has also, the above journal asserts, made his own furniture. When the water is low and the mill does not work, our blind miller becomes a joiner, and also a turner, on a lathe of his own invention, and so he makes all manner of utensils, and pretty toy wind-mills for the juveniles. He lives quite alone, sweeps his own room, and cooks his own dinner; his mother, who has fifteen children to care for, lives a mile off, and does not trouble her head about 'her blind boy,' for 'he earns his bread now,' she says, 'and does not want her.' In 1852 this blind miller war rewarded with a medal by the agricultural society of the arrondissement for a machine serving the double purpose fo winnowing corn and separating the best grains from the common.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

Curious Facts Connected with the Norfolk Pestilence.

There are some curious facts connected with the progress of the late terrible visitation at Norfolk and Portsmouth, which seem to confirm the theory of Dr. Nott that this fever is of a travelling character and moves from South to North. It commenced in Rio Janeiro; reached New Orleans in 1853, where its ravages were terrible; in 1854 it scourged Savannah; it reached Portsmouth in 1855. In all previous visitations of yellow fever, Norfolk was first attacked, and from thence the disease was transmitted to Portsmouth, which lies south of Norfolk, and its whole march from the beginning was northward. Its progress through the whole period was always greater in a north and north-easterly direction, than west and north-west. Thus it crossed the water to Norfolk, a mile distant from Portsmouth, whilst it did not reach the U. S. Naval Hospital, which lies nearly west of Norfolk and north-west of Portsmouth, for two months. When it did appear there, there were very few cases, and those generally manageable. Old Point is in the due north line of its track, and it will be remembered that a late period of the season there were one or two cases there. It is some consolation to know, if this theory be true, that Richmond lies nearly due west from Norfolk, and that we are consequently not in the track of the pestilence.

A very intelligent gentleman, who adopts the idea that the plague is caused by animalculæ, mentions a statement which he has heard, that soon after the interment of a corpse in a vault adjoining a church, in England, the communion was administered in the church, and nearly all who partook of the elements were taken sick, and some died. The wine merchant from whom the wine had been procured was arrested on a charge of poisoning. While the subject was in agitation, some persons, on entering the church, saw by the rays of the sun, streaming through a partly opened window shutter, millions of animalculæ floating about in the light. These animalculæ seemed to have an affinity for fluids, especially for wine, some of which was placed in the church, and it was soon filled with animalculæ, and upon a test being applied, the wine was found to be poisoned. The animalculæ were afterwards proved to have emanated from the above ground vault where the dead body had recently been buried.

Our informant also refers to the curious appearance of the plague fly. It is a fact, established beyond contradicting, that after the plague had culminated at Portsmouth, the curious fly appeared. It was between the size of a mousqueto and ordinary fly, and changed its color from red to yellow. Where did the plague-flies come from? They seem to have escaped the observation of natural historians.—Our friend suggests they may be the animalculæ, generated by the dead bodies, in a certain stage of their being.

In this connection, a singular fact is stated by an eminent Judge of this State, who seems to sustain the theory of Dr. Nott and of our Portsmouth friend. It is that the great pest to the agriculturist, the Joint Worm, travels from south to north, always in a certain line, and never exceeding a certain breadth. So uniform are its movements that if he only knows when it has reached the North Carolina line, or any given point whatever, south of his residence, he can estimate with considerable exactness the time when it shall reach his own plantation.

We are not prepared to advocate any particular theory on the subject, but the facts stated seem to us worthy of the consideration of men of science.

AN UNFORTUNATE HABIT.—Some persons are in the habit of dwelling upon and greatly magnifying every little injury they receive at the hands of others. They thus render themselves very disagreeable to those into whose ears they are continually pouring their complaints; and at the same time greatly injure themselves in the estimation of such, whilst they are contributing very much to their own personal misery. How much better would it be were such persons to bury their little troubles, or at least to keep them entirely out of sight! It is to be presumed that they do not sufficiently reflect upon the true nature of their conduct, else they would certainly be more careful to avoid it than they are. Jamieson forcibly exposes the great folly of such conduct by the following illustration.

"A man strikes me with a sword and inflicts a wound. Suppose, instead of binding up the wound, I am showing it to everybody, and after it has been bound up I am taking off the bandage continually and examining the depth of the wound, and make it fester till my limb becomes greatly inflamed and my general health is materially affected; is there a person in the world who would not call me a fool? Now such a fool is he who, by dwelling upon little injuries, or insults, or provocations, causes them to agitate or inflame his mind. How much better were it to put a bandage over the wound and never look at it again.—G. R. Mess.

It was gathered from the reports of the respective committees, that the labors of this society have not been in vain; a spirit of improvement is abroad in the county. A marked improvement was noticed in the horses exhibited; the display of cattle was not large, but of good quality. Hogs, sheep and poultry hard to beat, whilst the display of grain, fruit and vegetables was exceedingly creditable, and better, rarely to be met with. Maj. Washabaugh's mammoth tender-fleshed squash of 182 pounds weight, attracted great attention; also all the other vegetables. Upon the whole, the exhibition manifested the interest felt by the friends of the society, in the good old cause of agriculture.

TEXAS ELECTION.—The election of Gen. Ward to Congress in the Eastern District has been officially announced. This, together with the election of the Democratic Lieut. Governor and a large majority to the legislature, effectually destroys Know Nothingism in Texas.

MINESOTA ELECTION.—Rice, Democrat, has been elected delegate to Congress from Minesota. The vote stands for Rice 3215, Marshall 2134, Olmstead 1785—three or four small counties to hear from.

INDIANA ELECTION.—The election in the State of Indiana has resulted in the complete triumph of the Democratic party by a majority ranging from 15 to 20,000. The Abolitionists and Know Nothings are completely prostrated in the Hoosier State.

Sergeant at Arms.

We learn that a number of the friends of J. B. SANSOM, Esq., editor of the Fulton Democrat, will urge his claims for the post of Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives of this State. Mr. S. is one of the most reliable Editors in the state, and has done good service for the Democratic cause.

We most cheerfully endorse the above from the Harrisburg Union and Patriot of last Saturday, and hope Mr. S. may be chosen to this honorable trust if he desires the post. We know him well, and can say, in all candor, that he is both, "honest and capable," and, in addition, he deserves well at the hands of the Democratic Party, for whose interests he has labored many years faithfully and zealously. He would, if the people were immediately called upon, receive the unanimous recommendation of the Democrats of Bedford and her daughter Fulton.

The Chambersburg Whig.

☞ During the late campaign, this paper took the most strong and unequivocal ground against know-nothingism, even denouncing them more harshly than most of the Democratic press. In view of this fact, we felt pleasure in according to Col M'CLURE, (the editor,) a great degree of disinterested patriotism, and took frequent occasion to applaud his course as manly, independent, and honest. But we find, with regret, that we entirely misconstrued the real character of the man. An article in his paper of Oct. 31, shows the cloven foot too plainly to be misunderstood even by the "way faring man."—He now deprecates the idea of the old line Whig press lampooning the know-nothings, of which he has been chief, and calls for a brotherly union between them and all the other elements that stand opposed to the Democracy! The Colonel himself goes for the Colored Folks, and proclaims his intention to unfurl the incendiary Flag of ABOLITIONISM, which is the twin-brother to Know-Nothingism, and equally as dangerous to the true interests of the country. Whenever our opponents unfurl this BLACK FLAG, promulgating a doctrine intended, eventually, to place the NEGRO upon full equality with the white man—a doctrine calculated to desolate the entire South, and crimson its soil with the blood of as chivalrous a set of people as ever inhabited the earth—we say, whenever the motly crew of Know-Nothings and Republicans unite upon this infamous platform, the yeomanry of Pennsylvania are ready to meet and overwhelm them by such a majority as was never before given in the glorious old Keystone State. We say, then, unfurl your Banner, and the Democracy will charge upon you with a force and determination such as you have never before felt!! He who attempts to unite the two races can be considered in no other light than a traitor to his country and the Constitution under which we live, and abolitionism, (alias "Republicanism,") points unmistakeably to this state of affairs, let its advocates say what they may!

But to come back to our friend Col. M'Clure, a "nullifier" in the fullest acceptation of the term—we are truly sorry to have to say, from the tenor of the article just alluded to, that his opposition to know nothingism seems to have been based entirely upon a selfish motive, the meanest and most reprehensible that can govern the character of man! A paper called the "Transcript," devoted to the especial and exclusive cause of the midnight conspirators against both law and morals, was started in Chambersburg. This Journal bid fair to divide the patronage of the County with the Whig—and, in order to break it down, Col. McClure very patriotically used his best efforts to break down the Know Nothing Party, in which we are free to admit, he done good service, although his motive turns out to have been a very bad one.

The Colonel holds an office under the State Executive worth "a thousand" a year, and he now conceives it necessary to unite every thing to re-elect Gov. Pollock, and thus secure his own bacon, but we can assure him in advance, that the fate of the enemies of Democracy, is written in characters not to be misunderstood, and the next Governor will be a Democrat just as certainly as the day of election arrives, so that our neighbor can prepare to walk spanish.—Col. McClure intends, perhaps, to find some way to "nullify" the voice of the people, as he has attempted to do that of the Supreme Court, but he will find the one about as effective as the other.

THANKSGIVING.—Gov. Pollock has appointed Thursday, November 22nd, as a day of general thanksgiving throughout the State.

Col. Forney's Address.

☞ We have received an address recently delivered in the City of Lancaster, Pa., on "Religious Intolerance and Political Proscription," by Col. JOHN W. FORNEY, and in consequence of its great merit, we shall, as soon as our paper is less crowded with advertisements, give it a place in the Columns of the Bedford Gazette. It is a production which should be in the hands of every voter, as the truths it inculcates are such as cannot be successfully refuted. FORNEY is not only one of the greatest political writers of the present day, but he is one of those Democrats that can always be relied upon. His address has been read with great interest by many of the citizens of Bedford, and highly applauded. In fact, there has been a great demand for it by those who have heard of it, and have not yet seen it. It should be published by every Democratic paper in the Union, notwithstanding its great length. The space it will occupy could not be better filled, if as well. Send it throughout the length and breadth of the country, Brethren of the Democratic Press, and you will receive the thanks of all your Democratic readers as well as thousands who even yet belong to the demoralizing Order of Know Nothings. We wish some friend would send us a few more copies of the Pamphlet, in order that we may supply many who will consider it a bright ornament to their Centre Tables in the Parlor.

Col. David H. Hofius.

☞ This gentleman, one of the ablest Lawyers in western Pennsylvania, and a citizen of handsome personal accomplishments, boldly set his face against know-nothingism this fall, and run as a volunteer (or rather fusion) candidate for assembly in the district composed of Blair and Huntingdon. He was defeated, as a matter of course, because that is one of their strong holds in Pennsylvania—but the manly and independent course he took has given him more standing, both at home and abroad, whether considered as a Lawyer, a gentleman, or a Politician, that the highest position he could have obtained through the influence of a secret oath-bound association. We feel truly glad that we can refer to such men as Col. HOFIUS, as opponents of this dangerous organization, and feel satisfied that the day is not distant, when his patriotism and love of Country will be duly appreciated by even hundreds who voted against him at the late election. Col. Hofius would have made an able member of the House, and the Legislative abilities he posesses would do honor to any constituency. We congratulate him upon the handsome vote he received, considing the adverse circumstances under which he run. His defeat is far more honorable than the success of his opponents, who by their obligations, are bound to support principles repugnant to every principle of a patriot. Altho' defeated, he is not conquered, a fact which Know-Nothingism will yet learn.

He Held the Keys of his Prison!

☞ Judge BLACK, in his Opinion on the PASSMORE WILLIAMSON Case, said that this violator of the law "held the keys of his prison in his own pocket." And how true the remark, and with what keen foresight Judge B. declared it, as will be seen from the fact that the said Passmore came into Court, before His Honor, Judge KANE, on last Saturday, 3d inst. and purged himself of the contempt of Court for which he had been imprisoned—whereupon he was discharged from the gloomy cells of a Prison, in which he had incarcerated himself in order to be made a martyr in the cause of Abolitionism, for political effect—but it did not pay as the October election abundantly proved. The humiliating conduct of Williamson, in thus acknowledging his error, after laying five months in prison, has lopped off at least 50 per cent of the capital the Abolitionists intended to work upon next fall. The Daily News (K. N.) mortified at the finale of this transaction, comforts Williamson by telling him "that he has learned a lesson which may be of service to him"—and advises him "henceforth to mind his own business, and let that of others alone!"

Judge KANE acted throughout this whole matter with a degree of firmness and legal ability which will endear him to every law abiding man in this glorious Union. We always looked upon Judge KANE as one of the first Judges in our country—as a gentleman of sterling integrity—and possessing every qualification, as a citizen, that renders man an ornament to society. We think more of him now than we ever did—and the decision of our SUPREME COURT, on this subject, will place the distinguished Tribunal a little higher, in this estimation of the public, (if this were possible,) than they have ever been estimated. As a whole, the Pennsylvania Judiciary stands unrivalled. Abolitionism will fizzle out in the Presidential campaign just as Passmore has. Mark it!!

ONE OF THE FRUITS!

☞ The Pittsburg Union of Monday last comes to us freighted with Sheriff's Sales, occupying about ten columns in small type! Until Know-Nothingism took possession of Whiggery, that "same old coon" done all this fat printing—but, through the popularity of this new light it has been taken to the Democratic Head Quarters, not only in Pittsburg, but almost throughout the entire length and breadth of the land. May Old Allegheny never grow less in her Democratic proportions. She won't, if her people follow the wholesome teachings of the "Union."

☞ J. LAWRENCE GETZ, Esq., the talented editor of the Reading Gazette and Democrat was triumphantly elected to the Legislature by the Democracy of old Berks at the late election. He will make an efficient member, and do honor to his constituency.

ELECTION OF ADJUTANT GENERAL!

The appointment of Aids-de-Camp by the Governor a Burlesque upon the Militia!

☞ We take the liberty of making the following pointed and forcible extract from a letter bearing date November 5, 1855, addressed to us after reading the Gazette of last week. The writer of this paragraph is one of the most accomplished gentlemen in the Commonwealth—is an officer of high rank—and has faced the enemy on more than one hard fought battle field, in which he won laurels that will never fade whilst Patriotism has a name in our happy land. The view he takes of these two subjects will, we think, be endorsed by nine-tenths of the people of Pennsylvania; and by the military without a dissenting voice. But to the extract:

☞ "The idea of electing the Adjutant General is a good one. He is not a Cabinet Officer; and there is no good reason why he should be an appointee of the Governor. The Adjutant General is the Chief of the General Staff—not an aid-de-camp of the Governor. To attempt to remove him without cause, is an abuse of power for which the party attempting it is liable to impeachment.

The Governor has no right to appoint as many aids-de-Camp as he pleases. It is a violation of usage and has no precedent. I have never been able to find a law that authorized the appointment of any, nor do I believe the Governor has a right to appoint one.—He holds the same position relatively to the Militia that the President does to the Army. What would be said if President PIERCE would flood the country with some thirty or forty thousand aids-de-camp 'with the rank of Lieut Colonel.' I rather think that the youngest graduate of West Point, or the greenest appointments in the new Regiments, would laugh at it—and I am quite sure that not a sentinel would present arms to them. These appointments by the Governor are a positive NUISANCE—a BURLESQUE upon the Militia—and an insult to the Regimental Officer. The title is degraded. "Colonel" and "Dunderhead" have become synonymous terms. It is due to our VOLUNTEERS that the Legislature should enact a law rescinding the Commissions now issued, and limiting the number (if any are allowed, which I consider unnecessary) hereafter to two, or at most three."

SOMERSET COUNTY.

☞ This County done better, perhaps, at the late election, (all things considered,) than any other county in Pennsylvania, except, perhaps, Lancaster and Allegheny. Somerset used to give its 17 and 1800 federal majority, but one year's reign of Know Nothingism has brought it down to an average majority of about 200, notwithstanding the large calculations of our friend, Col. EDIE, made in Bedford last August. We can account for this handsome result in two ways:

1st. The "Democrat," under the editorial control of C. F. MITCHELL, Esq., proved itself one of the most efficient papers in the Commonwealth, its original articles cutting like a two edged sword, and carrying conviction wherever they reached a conscientious man—and, 2d. The influence of Judge KIMMELL, and his friends, convinced hundreds of K. N's of their error, and induced them to turn their batteries against those with whom they acted last year. We cannot but look upon the conduct of our President Judge, in so manfully and so boldly expressing his utter detestation of this DISREPUTABLE organization, with the highest admiration and esteem, as we are satisfied does the entire Democracy of the State, as well as a large number of old line Whigs who refused to bow at the feet of this great agent in promoting the kingdom of Satan. His patriotism and love of country will not soon be forgotten by an enlightened and law abiding People. There is no trust in this goverment with which we would not entrust Judge KIMMELL—and higher honors than a District Judge are in reserve for him.

☞ The premiums awarded at the Late Agricultural Fair will be found on the first page—and, of course, will prove interesting to the public generally. The Fair was well attended by good-looking and well-behaved people, and every thing passed off creditably. Every body should take an interest in these Fairs.

AN INCIDENT.—A few months since a lady belonging to this city went to New York and put up at one of the Broadway hotel. After going to her room for the night, she took out her pocket book and watch, laid them on the table, and then sat down to read.—While engaged in reading she thought she heard breathing from some one apparently near by, but finally concluded it must be imagination. Soon after she commenced making preparations to retire, and in adjusting her hair she dropped one of her hair pins. While stooping to pick it up she discovered a hat under the bed, and a close observation revealed to her sight the full-length figure of a man. Without evincing any emotion she threw a shawl over her shoulders, went out of the room, locked the door after her, and stepping into the hall, she rang a bell which summoned to her assistance the proprietors, who called in the assistance of a police officer and the intruder was arrested. There was found on the prisoner a bottle of chloroform. He was convicted on the testimony of the lady, and sent to the state prison six months. The sequel to the whole was the dropping of the hair pin.—New Haven Journal

HORRIBLE MURDER.

A correspondent at Douglassville sends us the particulars of a horrible murder, committed on Wednesday night, on the person of Mrs. Hannah Shingle, a widow lady about 60 years old, residing in North Coventry township, Chester county, one and a half miles south of Unionville. The house was entered by means of a ladder placed against a window in the second story, and it appears that the murdered woman was down stairs when the murderer was climbing in the window above. She went up to see what was wrong, taking her axe with her, as she was accustomed to do. Upon coming to the head of the stairs, she was met by the villain, when a desperate struggle ensued. He pushed her to a bed which was near by, succeeded in taking the axe from her, hit her some five or six times across the head, and killed her almost instantly. She was undoubtedly killed on supposition that she had money on the house, as the murderer rifled everything in the house, where he supposed money could have been concealed; even an old clock case down stairs, was broken open. One of the neighbors states that she was in the habit of putting money sometimes in the clock. The murderer succeeded in getting all the money she had, with the exception of $5 25 which was found in one corner of the Bureau. As yet, suspicion rests upon no one; and the villain is still at large. Mrs. Shingle was living entirely alone upon her property, and had done so for some years.—Reading Gazette.

FATAL RENCOUNTRE.—A rencontre took place on the 16th inst., near Walterboro', Colleton District, in which Job Benton was instantly killed by Pinckey White, the weapon used being a gun, loaded with buckshot. White has been committed to jail to await his trial.—White's mother and two sisters have also been arrested—one of the sisters a little girl, as witness, the others as accessories. The cause of the crime is alledged to have been slander of White and his mother by Benton. White voluntarily surrendered himself to the Sheriff immediately after having committed the deed.—Charleston (S. C.) Courier.

Inauguration of Gov. Andrew Johnson.

The inauguration of the Hon. Andrew Johnson as Governor of Tennessee took place on the 23d inst. Upon taking the oath of office, Gov. Johnson delivered the following patriotic address:

Gentlemen of the Senate, of the House of Representatives, and Fellow-Citizens:

It is not my purpose on the present occasion to make an address to you. Two years ago I presented, in the form of an inaugural address, my views in regard to national and State policy which I thought then ought to be pursued, and would now, if it were necessary, reiterate and endorse them as being sound and correct.—They were my views and sentiments then, they are mine now, and I have been confirmed in them by reflection and experience. The leading and fundamental principles of Democracy were then laid down, constituting, as they do, the four great cardinals of my political creed. They are inherent and self-existing in the nature of man, and will cease to exist only with man's total annihilation from the earth. They were taught and practised by the Founder of our holy religion, and they will have followers and advocates so long as His precepts and example are respected and received by the civilized world as being of Divine origin.

The Democratic party of the nation is now passing through a severe and trying ordeal, contending with an enemy that comes as a thief in the night, cautious and subtle in its approach, noiseless in its footsteps, and swift in its progress; in its transitory pause exerting an influence upon the morals, religion, and politics of the country, as withering and deadly in its effect as the poisonous emission of the Upas tree is upon all animal life. But Democracy has heretofore passed similar ordeals; and it will, as I confidently believe, as it has done on former occasions, rise from the present contest purer and stronger than at any former period of our country's history. The people have heard the struggle that has been going on; they have been aroused to a sense of the great danger that surrounds and threatens our institutions; they are in their might coming up to the rescue, and will save the country and preserve the constitution from a practical violation of some of its most essential provisions.

Democracy knows, and it is to be expected, too, that every plan, effort, and undertaking that has a tendency to improve and to elevate the great mass of the people, is naturally inclined to excite the illwill and opposition of those in possession of considerable learning, wealth and power, or those who contend for undue advantages over their fellowmen. It is important, therefore, always to bear in mind, that whatever tends substantially to benefit the common people will be generally viewed with hostility by the pseudo aristocracy of the country. Hence, genuine Christianity and Democracy both originate with, and have mainly been supported by, men of humble origin, circumstances, and situations, whom those puffed up with undue wealth, assumed learning, power, rank, and authority, generally profess to despise for their low birth, poverty and ignorance.

Anything which has a tendency to promote genuine civilization, Christianity, and Democracy, is most in accordance with the interests and feelings of the mass of the people. We must, therefore, look to them chiefly for an impulse or true sense of equal justice and fellow-feelings, and for whatever imports a common good, or the promotion of justice, humanity, prosperity, and happiness to mankind in general.

Virtue and intelligence, talent and genuine learning, honest industry, economy, and real merit, combined with a heart that loves its kind, of whatever clime, tongue, or condition, constitute the only aristocracy that can ever command and receive the respect and admiration of the American people. An aristocracy like this has my profound respect, and no other has. It is principles and sentiments like these which enable the patriot and philanthropist to exclaim, in sincerity and truth, that the world is my home, and that every honest man is my brother.

In assuming the heavy responsibilities of a second gubernatorial term, I must be permitted to state that I have, or feel that I have, performed every duty which has been imposed on me by law and the constitution with strict fidelity; and do now enter upon the second term, as I did two years ago upon the first, with a fixed and unalterable determination to discharge every duty growing out of my official station with punctuality and strict justice to all. It is with no ordinary pleasure that I avail myself of this occasion to tender one time more to the sovereign people of the State my unfeigned gratitude for this additional evidence of their confidence in me as a man and public servant. I will and, in conclusion, that the people have never deserted me, and, God being willing, I will never desert them.

DISCOVERY OF DIAMONDS IN VA.—On Monday, the 27th of August, a most singular discovery of two diamonds was made at "Dudley's Ferry," King and Queen county, the residence of William Brooks, Esq., A correspondent of the Richmond Whig details the circumstances of the discovery of these diamonds, which are indeed somewhat remarkable. It appears that as a Mr. Taylor was engaged sawing the timbers for a boat, out of an oak root his saw struck some hard substance, which, upon being punched out and examined, was found to be a diamond of the size of a black eyed pea—shortly after a smaller one was also found in the same root. The teeth of both saws were knocked out by the contact.

The oak tree to which this root belonged was probably a hundred and fifty years old, and was growing a few weeks ago in the ground bordering upon a swamp upon Mr. B.'s place. These diamonds were in shape octahedron, as most diamonds are in their natural state—of course they cut glass finely and were translucid, apparently of the first water. When found they were imbedded two or three inches from the surface of the root, causing a defect in the wood of it for some distance around. Can any one state another instance of a diamond being found as these were, buried in a root beneath the ground, probably for nearly a hundred and fifty years?

It will be remembered that about a year ago, a laborer, while digging in the streets of Manchester, just opposite Richmond, discovered a diamond a few feet below the surface of the earth, which proved to be one of enormous size, and was valued at some four or five thousand dollars. Connect the recent discovery with the one of last year, and it would seem that there are many of these precious stones imbedded in the soil of old Virginia.—Petersburg Express.

Destructive Conflagration—Several Lives Lost and a number of Persons Wounded.—We learn from Leonard's Worcester Express, that about 9½ o'clock this forenoon, fire broke out in the basement of the large five story factory building in Cordaville, Southboro, and that as the train from Worcester passed the spot a few minutes after 10 o'clock, the roof and a portion of the walls of the building had fallen in, and the whole structure was a mass of burning and smouldering ruins.

The factory building was over one hundred feet in length, and about fifty in width, five stories in height, and was owned by M. H. Sanford, Esq., and occupied by the Cordaville Manufacturing Company.

The flames communicated with a saw mill, dry house, and other buildings, all of which were destroyed, and the depot building on the Worcester Railroad was in imminent danger of sharing the same fate at the time the train passed.

The saddest part of the story is, that in their fright, after the alarm of fire was given, some of the operatives in the factory leaped from the upper windows, and at least, three of the number were killed almost instantly, while several others had their limbs fractured, and were otherwise injured.

Upon the train reaching Framingham, information of the calamity was given, and two physicians immediately left for the scene of the melancholy catastrophe.

Physicians from Natick also repaired to Cordaville upon learning of the calamity.—Boston Journal 30th.

HE HAD THEM THERE.—A great many good things are told of Henry A. Wise, the popular Governor of Virginia elect, but none so truly illustrates the exceeding sharpness of his sarcasm as the following:

While he was stumping Western Virginia last Spring, he was one day much annoyed by a couple of "fast" young men, disciples of the invisible "Sam," who, by their conduct, plainly showed their determination to neither hear him themselves, nor allow anybody else. Wise submitted to the annoyance until forbearance ceased to be a virtue, and then pausing in his speech and turning to the youthful "Sams," he pointed his long, skinny finger, a la, Randolph, at them, and said: "Young men, I am to be your next Governor; you will probably be in the penitentiary, and you may depend upon it, you will have to serve your time." He wasn't interrupted again in that quarter.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—A few days since, a German was riding along Sansom street, in Sacramento, when he heard the wizzing of a ball near him, and felt his hat shaken. He turned about, and saw a man with a revolver in his hand, and took off his hat, and found a fresh bullet-hole in it.

"Did you shoot at me?" asked the German.

"Yes," replied the other party; "that's my horse. It was stolen from me recently."

"You must be mistaken," says the German; "I have owned the horse for three years."

"Well," says the other, "when I come to look at him, I believe I am mistaken. Excuse me, sir; won't you take a drink?"

The rider dismounted and tied his horse. The two found a drinking-saloon; they drank together, and parted friends. That is the California way of making acquaintances.

TORNADO IN BRISTOL, R. I.—A most terrific tornado passed over the north part of the town of Bristol R. I., a little after nine o'clock on Sunday Morning, accompanied by thunder and lightning, rain and hail. Fences were prostrated and trees broken off and blown up by the roots, and considerable damage done to chimneys and houses. The belt of the tornado was very narrow, probably not over a quarter of a mile in width, and was about five minutes only in passing over.

UTAH.

A letter to the Chicago Tribune from Fillmore City, Utah, estimates the population at from sixty to one hundred thousand persons, which, if true, would entitle the Territory to admission into the Union as a State. These people, the writer says, are mostly active and industrious—in fact the most industrious community he ever saw. Mills and factories are in operation in all parts of the Territory where settlements exist, as are also common schools. The capitol building in process of erection at Fillmore City, is spoken of as superb in design.

One wing is nearly completed, and will be in readiness by the second Monday in December, at which time the legislature meets. It is built of a Superior quality of stone, of a reddish hue. Salt Lake city contains 15,000 inhabitants, and has fine stone hotels, school houses, &c. A large majority of the people are of foreign birth, mostly English. The city next in importance is Provo, containing factories, mills, &c., and about three thousand inhabitants.

Bedford Academy
AND
FEMALE SEMINARY.
W. W. CAMPBELL, Principal.

The 1st Session of the 5th school year of this Institution will open on Monday morning the 3d day of September. The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future efficiency. The branches taught will be the same as heretofore. To MASTER PRINCIPLES will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with innumerable formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like placing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him how to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to THINK.

N. B. Instruction in Book Keeping in all its branches, both Single and Double Entry will be given by the Principal. The Class in this study will be so arranged that any young men desiring to pursue this important branch in order to prepare themselves for clerkships can recite in it alone. This recitation will receive attention out of the regular school hours. Instruction in this branch will be extra and so charged.

We look forward confidently to the patronage of this community, which has thus far been so generously extended, and by an undiminished assiduity, we hope to merit your support.

HEMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound Fluid Extract of Buchu,

For Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weaknesses, and all diseases of the Sexual Organ whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

THE FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU has been pronounced by eminent Physicians THE GREATEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and, unlike other remedies, it does not dry up the disease in the blood.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, acting both as a cure and preventative.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished Physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our Public Institutions which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases, after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible Physicians and Professors of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying both Preparations.

Prices—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle.
" " Sarsaparilla " "
or 6 bottles for $5, equal in strength to one gallon Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

Prepared and Sold by H. T. HELMBOLD.

[Letter from Hon. John Minor Botts, of Virginia.]

RICHMOND JULY 9th, 1855.

Messrs, Wm. S. Beers & Co., Gents.—Considerations of duty to the afflicted alone prompt me to send you this voluntary testimonial to the great value of "Carter's Spanish Mixture," for that almost incurable disease, Scrofula.

Without being disposed or deeming it necessary to go into the particulars of the case, I can say that the astonishing results that have been produced by the use of that medicine on a member of my own family, and under my own observation and superintendence, after the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted and the usual remedies had failed, fully justify me in recommending its use to all who may be suffering from that dreadful malady.

I do not mean to say that it is adapted to all constitutions, or that it will afford the same relief in all cases; for, of course, I can know nothing about that—but from what I have seen of the effects, I would not hesitate to use it, in any and every case of Scrofula, with persons for whom I felt an interest, or over whom I could exercise any influence or control.

Respectfully yours,
JNO. M. BOTTS.

Dyspepsia, Jaundice,

Chronic or Nervous Debility, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach.

Such as Constipation, inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits,

CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

No. 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

J. D. SPRING, Laceyville, Pa., April 6, 1854, says: "I can get you some good certificates for your German Bitters in this vicinity if you wish them. A lady purchasing some of it this week, says that it is by far the best medicine she ever knew, having done her and her daughmuch good, &c."

S. B. LAWSON, Benfard's Store, Somerset Co., Pa., August 15, 1853, says: "I am much attached to your German Bitters, having used two bottles of it, which I procured from S. Kurtz, your agent at Somerset, and found great relief from in disease of the Liver. I find it has great effect upon my lungs, strengthening and invigorating them, which, as I am a public speaker, is a great help to me."

DR. GILES, Newton Hamilton, Pa., May, 1851, said: I have used myself half a dozen bottles of your German Bitters for Liver complaint and diseases of a nervous character, resulting from the abuse of mercury. I was poisoned and afflicted with spasms from the use of this latter article. The German Bitters is the first article from which I obtained any relief. I have also given the article to many dyspeptics, with the most salutary result. I think as many more bottles will cure me."

J. C. YOUNG, Esq., of Dauphin, Pa., writes May 5, 1851: "I was afflicted with General Debility, Intestinal weakness and Costiveness, for which I used many different remedies without relief. I at last used your Hoofland's German Bitters. I took a few bottles according to directions, and was completely cured. I have not been so healthy for ten years as I have been since I took your Bitters, which is about one year ago."

The Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, always strengthening the system and never prostrating it.

Sold by dealers in medicine and storekeepers everywhere. And by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—Here is another notice of a preparation bearing the above name. We would say to our readers, try it, and you will not be disappointed. It may be had at Rupp & Oster's in this place.

From the Pittsburg Morning Post, Sept. 24, 1853.

KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—We have tried this medicine for a severe cold, and can truly say we have never found any remedy so pleasant and effectual. It is an expectorant, yet does not sicken the stomach; and it prevents costiveness. It is very highly recommended by physicians and others who have tried it, as a speedy and effectual cure for Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Quinsy, and numerous other complaints of the Bronchial Organs and Lungs. We can safely recommend it as an excellent remedy.
